Check VSB Email Regularly

As business communications have steadily moved away from paper notices and faxes it is more important than ever to check your VSB email periodically as more and more information is disseminated in this form.

All members should learn how to conduct basic workplace communications such as calling in sick and receiving various bulletins. It is not recommended that you give your password to others.

To assist members who are uncomfortable with computers the local union conducted three basic computer skills workshops for cafeteria workers on weekends in November and December. By all accounts these workshops were well received.

HAPPY NEW YEAR FROM YOUR EXECUTIVE BOARD!

Wishing all members and their families a healthy and prosperous New Year,

Tim Chester, Tim De Vivo, Harjit Khangura, Chad Stuart, Antoinette Cominetti, Livia Hisaoka, Yvette Menges, Analida Leung & Herman Sheng.

Local Collective Bargaining with VSB

After 11 sessions of local collective bargaining with the Vancouver School Board much progress has been made, however, there remains some significant issues that your bargaining committee will be presenting, discussing and seeking membership direction as to how we proceed.

Members are encouraged to attend this important meeting, Saturday January 7, 2023, at the Croatian Cultural Centre, 3250 Commercial Drive, Vancouver, B.C. General Membership meetings start at 10:00 a.m.
